

Please do not make it any easier for telemarketers to contact me. In the past I have been called by sales people as much as 10 calls in one day! I find this to be incredibly disruptive to my home life. My time spent with my family is precious and I do not wish to have that time interrupted by sales calls that have no purpose other than to annoy me - I have never nor will I ever buy anything from a phone call!! Thank you for protecting my home life.
